

Climate Protection: EVERYBODY PROFITS VI

YOU ARE INVITED THURSDAY, MAY 13, 2010

VETERANS MEMORIAL HALL
282 HIGH STREET, SEBASTOPOL

The theme of this year's conference is the power of pricing and financing to reduce greenhouse gas emissions.

NEW THIS YEAR: A Contest for pricing and financing policy ideas with $3,500 in prizes. Finalists will present their ideas to conference attendees whose votes will determine the winners.

CLIMATE PROTECTION: EVERYBODY PROFITS VI

PLEASE JOIN leaders from Sonoma County government, business, education and nonprofit organizations for the sixth annual conference. Help realize the vision for our region that includes a healthy business environment and an exceptional quality of life. Protecting our communities and natural resources in the face of climate change requires a community-wide effort. Find out if Sonoma County is making progress towards its GHG reduction goal - 25% below 1990 levels by 2015.

CLIMATE CONGRESS – PUBLIC STAKEHOLDER FORUM

An annual public forum as part of the Regional Climate Protection Authority (www.sctainfo.org/rcpa.htm) bringing together elected officials, non-profit board members, industry CEOs, education administrators, and other interested parties to report on coordination of climate change issues and progress made toward regional goals to reduce greenhouse gas emissions.

SCHEDULE	8 AM	Registration, Continental Breakfast, Sponsor & Table Networking
	9 AM	Presentations, Panels, and Discussions
	12 Noon	Lunch and Keynote Speaker
	1 PM	Conference Concludes
	1:30 PM	Congress Begins
	3 PM	Congress Concludes

Questions? Contact Conference Organizer, Marinda Freeman, MF Productions: 415-924-9145 marinda@mfproductions.net

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES AVAILABLE!

Go to www.everybodyprofitssonoma.com for more information including about the contest, and to register.