

YOU ARE INVITED THURSDAY, MAY 13, 2010

VETERANS MEMORIAL HALL
282 HIGH STREET, SEBASTOPOL

CLIMATE PROTECTION: EVERYBODY PROFITS CONFERENCE

Join other leaders representing Sonoma County government, business, education and nonprofit organizations as we work together to design the future of sustainability in our Sonoma County communities.

Protecting our communities and natural resources in the face of climate change requires a community-wide effort. Join us in creating a vision for our region that includes a healthy business environment, reduced greenhouse gas emissions and an exceptional quality of life. Come address the critical sustainability issues facing our community.

- 8 AM Registration, Continental Breakfast & Sponsor Networking
- 9 AM Presentations, Panels, and Discussions
- 12 Noon Lunch and Keynote Speaker
- 1 PM Conference Concludes

CLIMATE CONGRESS – PUBLIC STAKEHOLDER FORUM

An annual public forum as part of the Regional Climate Protection Authority (www.sctainfo.org/rcpa.htm) bringing together elected officials, non-profit board members, industry CEOs, education administrators, and other interested parties to report on coordination of climate change issues and progress made toward regional goals to reduce greenhouse gas emissions.

- 1:30 PM Congress Begins
- 3 PM Congress Concludes

Questions? Contact Conference Organizer, Marinda Freeman, MF Productions:
415-924-9145 marinda@mfproductions.net

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES AVAILABLE!

Go to www.everybodyprofitssonoma.com for more information and to register